THERE are many ways scarcely needing mention in which the Interlinear New Testament may prove its value, not the least of which is the facility with which it enables one, even if rusty in his Greek, to put his finger on the original Greek word or phrase, and at the same instant upon a literal rendering. To many it will repay its cost in the time saved from turning to a Greek dictionary. Of course it becomes a necessary adjunct to every complete working library.

The ever-growing interest in New Testament study makes it desirable that the general reader, who would be well informed on current topics, should have some acquaintance with the relation of the standard English version to the original text, while a still more intimate knowledge on the part of the clergyman and the Bible Class teacher would seem almost imperative. Toward this end no aid is likely to be more helpful than the Interlineer New Testament.

This work is intended therefore to help the English reader of the New Testament, who may desire to refer to the actual words used in the Greek text. It has not been framed to teach people Greek, though it may be used to good advantage for that purpose.

The Interlinear Translation brings to view certain points of interest that no other translation has ever pretended to give. Take for instance the word 'master.' This word 'master' is used in the Authorized Version to translate six different Greek words, all bearing different shades of meaning. The word 'judgment' in the Authorized Version stands for eight different Greek words in the original; and so of many others. Of particles, 'but' represents twelve different words; 'by,' eleven; 'for,' eighteen; 'in,' fifteen; 'of,' thirteen; and 'on,' nine.

We do not intend to imply that a given Greek word can be, or that it is desirable that it should be, translated in all places by the same English word. On the other hand, one should be able to ascertain, on occasion, just what the facts are; and it is an interesting feature of the Interlinear New Testament that in the margin appears the English word of the Authorized Version; in the text appears the Greek original of that particular word; and immediately under it, the English word that is its nearest literal equivalent.

We give the Greek Text, with an interlinear translation as literal as may be to be useful; and in the margin the Authorized Version, divided into paragraphs to correspond to the Greek text.

This work also gives in its notes not only the various readings of six different editors of the Greek Testament, but also these variations in English whenever the sense is affected thereby, but without attempting to present in every case all the minute shades of meaning which a Greek scholar will attach to them. Many of these variations may be thought to be of no great importance, descending even to the different spelling of the same word; but from this they rise to variations of the greatest importance. All are of interest, because they concern the word of God, and are here made available to the English reader, to whom we furnish in this volume all he may require both as to the text of the New Testament, and for its word-for-word translation.

THE GREEK TEXT.

The Greek Text is that of Stephens, 1550, which has long been in common use; but as the edition of Elzevir, 1624, is the one often called the Received Text, or Textus Receptus, because of the words, "Textum... ab omnibus receptum," occurring in the preface, we give the readings of this Elzevir edition in the notes, and mark them E. It is the text commonly reprinted on the Continent. In the main they are one and the same; and either of them may be referred to as the Textus Receptus.

There are a number of minute variations between the editors which we do not attempt to present. In all these cases we have followed the majority of modern editors. With them we have also added the final ν to the third person singular and plural in $\sigma\iota$; third singular in ε ; in datives plural in $\sigma\iota$, &c. For $o\hat{\nu}\tau\omega$ we have given $o\hat{\nu}\tau\omega\varepsilon$, and $a\hat{\nu}\tau\sigma\hat{\nu}$ where some have $a\hat{\nu}\tau\sigma\hat{\nu}$.

As to the form of the Greek text a few words are needed.

- 1. Paragraphs.—We were disappointed in finding nothing like authority for where a paragraph ought to be. Ancient manuscripts were no help: they have few or no paragraphs. The editors all differed, each making paragraphs according to his own judgment. We were therefore obliged, after referring to the best examples, to form paragraphs for ourselves. We are anxious that our readers should remember that the paragraphs have no authority, which they might have had if the ancient manuscripts had agreed in the placing of them.
- 2. PARENTHESES.—Most of the editors have placed here and there parentheses in their Greek texts. These we have disregarded, seeing that there are no such things in the early Greek copies. We have placed them in the English where we deemed them necessary to preserve the sense, but not being in the Greek they also have no authority.
- 3. Inverted Commas.—Some editors mark with inverted commas the words that are spoken, and others in a similar way mark the quotations from the Old Testament. But in some places it is doubtful where these quotations close, and it was thought best to omit them. These also, being absent from the ancient Greek copies, have no authority.
- 4. Points.—There is no authority anywhere for the punctuation. There are few or no points in the ancient copies, and editors naturally differ in their system of pointing. We have been obliged to punctuate for ourselves as we judged best. We have not attempted to note the difference in the punctuation of the various editors, except in places where it materially alters the sense.

- 5. Capitals.—The only remark needed here is in reference to the names of God, of Christ, and of the Holy Spirit. The greatest difficulty is touching the word 'Spirit.' In some places it is very difficult to say whether the Holy Spirit as a person or the spirit of the Christian is referred to (see Rom. viii. 9); and if sometimes a small letter and sometimes a capital had been placed to the word $\pi\nu\epsilon\bar{\nu}\mu a$, in the Greek, persons would naturally have concluded that the question was thus indisputably settled. It was therefore judged best to put a small π everywhere. In the English we have been obliged to put a capital S when the Holy Spirit was referred to and so have retained it wherever we thought this was the case; but in some places it is really doubtful, and becomes a question for the spiritual judgment of the reader. The Greek will not help in the difficulty, because in the earliest copies every letter was a capital. In the other names we have followed the usage of modern editors; putting in the Greek a capital to Jesus but a small letter for Christ, and a small letter for Lord and for God.
- 6. Verses.—In a few places it is doubtful where the verses should commence. In these cases we have followed Bruder's "Greek Concordance," though that work does not in all cases agree with itself.

THE INTERLINEAR TRANSLATION.

1. The plan. The Greek words have always been kept in their right order, and where the interlinear English would not make sense in the same order, the words have been numbered to show how they must be read. Thus, "And related 8to 9them 2also 1those 3who 4had 5seen [6it]" (Luke viii. 36) are numbered so as to read "And those also who had seen [it] related to them."

To prevent this numbering, and transposition in reading, being increased unnecessarily, a few words are often made into a phrase. This has been done at the commencement of each sentence, where needed, two or more words being joined with a low hyphen. Thus, instead of

'Εγένετο δὲ ²It ³came ⁴to ⁵pass ¹and

we have printed

'E $\gamma \acute{\epsilon} \nu \epsilon \tau o$ - $\delta \acute{\epsilon}$. And it came to pass.

The words in brackets [] are what have been added in the English to complete the sense where there is no word in the Greek to correspond to the words added.

Where a Greek word occurs which the English idiom requires should not be translated, the word stands alone with no English word under it: as $\delta\tau\iota$, 'that,' in Mark xii. 7; and ob in verse 14, where there are two negatives, which, if both were translated, would in English destroy one another; and so of $\mu\eta$, where it simply marks the sentence as a question.

In a few places we have been obliged to put a double translation, mostly because of the double negatives used in the Greek, where they do not immediately follow one another, and so could not be translated by such strengthened expressions as 'not at all,' 'in no wise,' &c. In such cases we have placed a literal translation below the one required in English. Thus—οὐδέν. anything. (lit. nothing.)

2. Points of grammar. The Aorist. This tense of the Greek verb has been at all times the most difficult to deal with, being translated, in the Authorized version (and by others), sometimes by the present, sometimes by the past, sometimes by the future, and sometimes by the perfect. Grammarians say that, in the main, it is the indefinite past, and we have endeavored, as far as may be, to keep it to this, avoiding, except in a few places, the translation of it as a perfect. We all know what stress is often laid—and rightly so—upon the word 'have.' If I say, 'he has cleansed me,' it is more than saying 'he cleansed me.' The former expression indicates the perfect, and implies a continuance of the act, or its effects, to the present time; whereas the latter speaks of an act at some time in the past, without anything being implied as to its continuance.

For this reason it appeared unadvisable to translate the aorist as the perfect, except in a few places where the true sense would otherwise have been destroyed. It is true that the English idiom requires it elsewhere, but it was thought best to preserve the above distinction. An extreme case will illustrate this point. In 1 Corinthians v. 9 occurs the word $i\gamma\rho a\psi a$, 'I wrote;' and in verse 11 the same word precisely—'I wrote;' but the Authorized Version (and others) put for the latter 'I have written.' It is there accompanied with the word 'now'—'now I have written.' This is needed for good English; we have put 'I wrote' in both places, but have placed a comma after the word 'now' to make it read more smoothly. We preserve this uniformity for the sake of literalness, always remembering the fact of the Authorized Version being in proximity, which will make all plain in such instances.

In a few places we have translated the agrist as a present where the sense demanded it. As, for instance, $\xi\gamma\nu\omega$, in 2 Timothy ii. 19: "The Lord knows those that are his," instead of "the Lord knew," &c.

The Imperfect. This is mostly translated as 'I was writing,' or 'I wrote.' But there are a few places where this tense is said to have a different meaning. This will be best illustrated by the much-disputed passage in Romans ix. 3: "For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren." Here the word for 'I could wish' is in the imperfect. If the learned were agreed as to a translation we should have kept to the same, but while some translate 'I could wish,' as a conditional present, others give 'I could have wished' as a conditional past. We have thought it best to keep the sense of the simple imperfect as referred by Winer to this passage. "I felt a wish, and should do so still, could it be gratified (a conditional clause being understood)." We have put "I was wishing."

The Perfect. This we have kept as uniform as we could, implying an act perfected, but continuing to the present in itself or its consequences. In a few places we have translated it as a present: as in Matthew xii. 47, in the sense of 'they have stood and still are standing.'

The Subjunctive. In this mood perhaps we have deviated further from ordinary practice than in any other, but we have endeavored, as far as practicable, to keep it distinct from both the English imperative and the Greek future. Thus in Romans xiii. 9 for οὐ φονεύσεις (future indicative) we have, 'thou shalt not commit murder;' but in James ii. 11, for μὴ φονεύσης (aorist subjunctive) 'thou mayest not commit murder.'

The Pronouns. At times it is important to know whether the pronouns are emphatic or not. $\dot{\epsilon}\gamma\dot{\omega}$ $\gamma\rho\dot{a}\phi\omega$ and $\gamma\rho\dot{a}\phi\omega$ are both 'I write;' but where the $\dot{\epsilon}\gamma\dot{\omega}$ is put in the Greek, it makes the pronoun emphatic. This however is somewhat due to the writer's style, and in John's Gospel and Epistles, it has been judged that, from his peculiar style of composition, he puts in the pronouns where emphasis is not always intended. John ix. 27 gives a good example of the same verb with and without the pronoun in the Greek: "Why again do ye wish to hear? do ye also wish to become his disciples?"

Compound Words. It was found impracticable to translate these uniformly throughout. For instance, if $\gamma\nu\bar{\omega}\sigma\iota\varsigma$ be translated 'knowledge,' it might be thought that $\epsilon\pi\dot{\epsilon}\gamma\nu\omega\sigma\iota\varsigma$ should be 'full knowledge,' &c.: but on referring to a Concordance it will be seen that the latter word cannot be intensified in all places, and then to translate it by 'knowledge' in some places, and 'full knowledge' in others looks too much like interpretation. We have therefore translated both words by 'knowledge.' In the few places however where one of each of such words occurs in the same sentence, some distinction was imperative.

THE NOTES.

The references to the notes are marked thus in the text "aiv\(\tau\)\(\text{ov}\)": the mark" showing how far the variation extends. In a few places a note occurs within a note. If words are to be omitted or transposed by some editors but not by others, these latter may want to alter a word in the sentence. In such cases one tick shows the termination of the inner note. Thus \(^1\)...\(^1\)..\(^1\)...\(^1

This mark—stands for omit; and + for add; but in some places all the editors do not actually omit, some putting the word in brackets as doubtful. In that case it is put thus, "— $airo\bar{v}$ [L] TTr"; which means that Lachmann marks the word as doubtful, and Tischendorf and Tregelles omit it. In some cases, all mark a word as doubtful, and then it could be put either thus, $\delta\hat{e}$ [LTTr], or $[\delta\hat{e}]$ LTTr; we have adopted the latter plan. In some places the editors mark part of a word as doubtful, mostly in compound words. See for instance $[\hat{e}\kappa]\delta\iota\omega\xi\delta\upsilon\upsilon\upsilon\nu$ read by TrA in Luke xi. 49.

It will be seen by this that the marks [] applied to the Greek or the editors in the notes always refer to readings which the editors point out as doubtful. They must not be confounded with the same marks in the English text and notes, which always point out that there is no corresponding word in the Greek.

In some places where a word is added by the editors, another English word is added in the note to show the connection of the new word. Thus in Luke xv. 2, the word 'both' is added; but it falls between the words 'the' and 'Pharisees,' therefore it is put thus in the note " $+\tau\epsilon$ both (the) LTTrA" to show that it must be read 'both the Pharisees.' Slight variations in the use of the parenthesis occur in the course of the work, but we trust the meaning intended will in all cases be plain to the student.

Where long pieces are to be omitted they are marked in the text where they commence and where they end, but in the notes the first word or two only and the last are named with . . . between. Thus in Luke ix. 55, note *stands, *— $\kappa a i \epsilon i \pi \epsilon \nu$ (verse 55) $\sigma \tilde{\omega} \sigma a \iota$ (verse 56) LTTrA;— $i \gamma \partial \rho$ $\sigma \tilde{\omega} \sigma a \iota$ G. The four editors omit the whole twenty words; but G omits only the last twelve. In Luke xxiv. 10, note 'is thus, '+ $i \gamma$ the [...], implying that some word must be added.

We have endeavored to make the notes as plain as possible for the English reader. One point still needs to be explained. For instance, in Luke vii. 22 occur the words "and 2answering 1 Jesus said;" but a note omits the word 'Jesus,' and then it must be read (as stated in the note) "and answering he said." This is because the word $\epsilon l \pi \epsilon \nu$ (as already explained) stands for both 'he said,' and 'said.' Also in verse 27 occur the words $\epsilon \gamma \omega \dot{a} \pi \sigma \sigma \tau \epsilon \lambda \lambda \omega$, 'I send,' but a note omits the word $\epsilon \gamma \dot{\omega}$, 'I,' and then $a \pi \sigma \sigma \tau \epsilon \lambda \lambda \omega$ is to be read 'I send,' but without emphasis on the 'I.'

THE MONEY AND MEASURES OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.

1. Money. It was deemed better not to attempt to translate the sums of money named in the New Testament, as we have no corresponding pieces to those then in use. We have therefore used the Greek words untranslated, and give a list of them here. It is not without interest and instruction to know the approximate value of money and the extent of the measures used. For instance, in Revelation vi. 6 we read of "a measure of wheat for a penny" in the Authorized Version; but this leaves the reader in doubt as to how far it speaks of scarcity and dearness. We want at least to know the value of the 'penny,' and the capacity of the 'measure.'

The following lists, it is hoped, will be useful; but approximate values only can now be arrived at.

thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. 30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and east it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: 32 but I say unto you, That whoseever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

33 Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: 34 but I say unto you, Swear not at all; nei-ther by heaven; for it is God's throne: 35 nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King. 36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou caust not make one hair white or black. 37 But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for what-soever is more than these cometh of evil.

38 Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and tooth for a tooth: 39 but I say unto you. 43 Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. 44 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; 45 that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. 46 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? 47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? 48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

VI. Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. 2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. 3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: 4 that thine alms may be in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites arc: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets,

XI. And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, 3 and said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another? 4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see: 5 the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them. 6 And ble sed is he, who so ever shall not be offended in me. ,

7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? 8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. are in kings' houses, 9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet. 10 For this is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall propare thy way before thee. 11 Verily I say unto you. Among them unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force. 13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. 14 And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come. 15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. 16 But whereuntoshall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented. 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children. .

20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not: 21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. 22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. 23 And thou, Capernaum, which art candled unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. 23 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue: 10 and, bchold, there was a man which had his hand with red. Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. 33 And when the multitude heard this the titude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 But. when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together. 35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great command-ment in the law? 37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. 38 This is the first and great commandment. 39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. 40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The Son of David. 43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool? 45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son? 46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in leper, 7 there came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat. 8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? 9 for this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. 10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. 15 Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would. 16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. 17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pi-late said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? 18 For he knew that for envy they had de-livered him. 19 When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man; for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. 20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabhas, and destroy Jesus.
21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas. 22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is cailed Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified. 23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified. 24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that racher a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it. 25 Then answered it. 25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. 26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. 25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. 26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. 27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him. 28 And im-mediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. 30 But Si-mon's Wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her. 31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them. 32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were dis-eased, and them that were possessed with devils. 33 And all the city was gathered to-gether at the door. 34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

X. And he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judæa by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again. 2 And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him. 3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you? 4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away. 5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept. 6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female. 7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; 8 and they twain shall be one twain shall be flesh: so then they are twain, but no more twain, but one flesh. 9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. 10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter, 11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her. 12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. 14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me.

XV. And straight-way in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. 2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it. 3 And the chief priests accused him of many things : but he auswered nothing. 4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee. 5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pi-late marvelled. 6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired. 7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. 8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

And immediately the leprosy departed from him. 14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thy-self to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. 15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: pray- and to be healed by him of their infirmities. 16 And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Ga-lilee, and Judæa, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them. 18 And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him. 19 And when they could not might bring him in because of the multi-tude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before σοι Jesus. 20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. 21 And the scribes and

27 And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: aud he said unto him, Follow me. 28 And he left all, rose up, and collowed him. 29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them. 30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners? ing said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick. 32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repeutance. 23 And they said unto him, Why do the dis- voiav ciples of John fast ance.

VI. And it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands. 2 And certain of the Pharrises said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days? 3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him; 4 how he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave 6 And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was with-ered. 7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him. 8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it? 10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other. Il And they were filled with mad-ness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and sontinued all night in orayer to God. 13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he those twelve, whom also he named apostles; 14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholonew, 15 Matthew and Chomas, James the son

VII. Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum. 2 And a certain cen-turion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die. 3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, besecching him that he would come and heal his servant. 4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this: 5 for he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue. 6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself : for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof: 7 wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my ser-vant shall be healed. 8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto ouc, Go. and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he dooth it. 9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him. 2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy. 3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? 4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go; 5 and an-swered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day? 6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them, 8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him; 9 and he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room, 10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. 11 For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 Then said he also to him that bade him, when thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did. 21 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, 25 and needed not that any should testify of man; for he knew what was in man.

III. There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: 2 the same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God : for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. 3 Jesus to him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. 4 Nicodemuns saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit. he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. 8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. 9 Nicodemus answered

John and he has borne witness to the truth.

Father raiseth up the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will. 22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: 23 that all men even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and now is, when the dead shall hear the as the Father hath life have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. 30, I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I witness of myself, my

XII. Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, when had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. 2 There they made 'him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him. 3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spike-nard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment. 4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor? 6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein. 7 Then said Jėsus, Let her alone : against the day of my turying hath she kept this. 8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death; 11 because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and be-lieved on Jesus.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. 11 These things have I 11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. 12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. 13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. 14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.
15 Henceforth I call command you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. 16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and or-dained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.
17 These things I command you, that ye love one another. 18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.
19 If ye were of the world, the world would leve his own: but be-cause ye are not of the world, but I have chosen yeu out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. 20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecut-ed me, they will also persecute you; if they

XVIII. When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples. 2And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples. 3 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye? 5 They anseek ye? 5 They answered him, Jesus of

XII. Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church. 2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. 3And be-cause he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.) 4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaterni-ons of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people. 5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. 6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison. 7 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. 8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind ou thy sandals. And so he did. XXIV. And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the gover-nor against Paul. 2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence, 3 we accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. 4 Not-withstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy cle-mency a few words. 5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes: 6 who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.
7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, 8 commanding his acest take knowledge of all the ethings, wherewe accuse him. 9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so. 10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, For-asituch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself: Il because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but $\delta \tau \iota$ où $\pi \lambda \epsilon i o v \varepsilon i \sigma i \nu$ uot $\eta \mu \epsilon_0 a \iota$ $\eta^{\parallel} \varepsilon \delta \epsilon \kappa a \delta v \circ \delta \iota$ twelve days since I that $\delta \iota$ more $\delta \iota$ than $\delta \iota$ there $\delta \iota$ are $\delta \iota$ than $\delta \iota$ there $\delta \iota$ are $\delta \iota$ than $\delta \iota$ there $\delta \iota$ are $\delta \iota$ than $\delta \iota$ there $\delta \iota$ are $\delta \iota$ than $\delta \iota$ than $\delta \iota$ there $\delta \iota$ are $\delta \iota$ than $\delta \iota$ than $\delta \iota$ than $\delta \iota$ there $\delta \iota$ are $\delta \iota$ than δ contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received au-thority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice a-gainst them. 11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I per-secuted them even unto strange cities. 12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 at midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the about me and them which journeyed with me. 14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hetongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. 16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purose, to make thee a minister and a wit-ness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; 17delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send whom now I send thee, 18 to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. 19Whereupon, O king Agrippa, to the heavenly vision;

XXVII. And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band. 2 And entering into a ship of Adranivttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, a Mace-donian of Thessalo-nica, being with us. 3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself. 4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed un-der Cyprus, because the winds were con-trary. 5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein. 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone; over against salmone; 8 and, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea. 9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them, 10 and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of of Ged. 3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? 4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is writton, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. 5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall ness or God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man) 6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world? 7 For if the truth of God both more truth of God bath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner? 8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; 10 as it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: Il there is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. 12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. 13 Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: 14 whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: 15 their feet are swift to shed blood 16 deto shed blood 16 destruction and misery are in their ways: 17 and the way of peace have they not known: 18 there is no fear of God before their area. their eyes. 19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is mani-fested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; 22 even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: 23 for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; 24 being justified freely by his grace through the redemp-tion that is in Christ Jesus: 25 whom God hath set forth to be a pro-pitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; 26 to declare, I say, at this time his righteousness; that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. 27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? 5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. 6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto works, 7 saying, Blessed are they whose inquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. 8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumci-sion also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness, 10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in un-circumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.11And he received the sigu of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that rightcourness might be imputed unto them also: 12 and the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect: 15 because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression. 16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the

VI. What shall we ay then? Shall we say continue in sin, that grace may abound? 2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? 3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? 4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. in newness of life. 5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: 6 know-ing this, that our old man is crucified with man was crucified with [him], that might be annulled the body sin might be destroyed

7 For he that is dead is freed from sin. 8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: 9 knowing thatChrist being raised from the dead dieth no more; death bath no more dominion over him. 10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. 11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. 12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mertal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. 13 Neither yield ye vour members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of rightcousness unto God. 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but un-

the servants of sin, ye were free from right-eousness. 21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. 22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. 23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

VII. Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak nion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her to another man, she shall be called an a-dulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man. 4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. 5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. 6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manuer of concupis-cence. For without the law sin was dead. 9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. 10 And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death. 11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by itslew me.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. 13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that ain by the comsiu by the com-mandment might become exceeding sinful. 14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carual, sold under sin. 15 For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do what I hate, that do I. 16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. 17 Now then it is no more I that it. is uo more I that do it, but sin that dwell-eth in me. 18For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no my nesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. 19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not that I do not that I would not that I do would not, that I do.
20 Now if I do that

VIII. There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath the law of sin and death. 3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: 4 that the righteousness of the law in the flesh, that us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the τὸ δικαίωμα τοῦ νόμου πληοωθη ἐν ἡμῖν, τοῖς μὴ κατὰ the nest, out after the spirit. to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God. 27 Esalas also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved: 28 for he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteouşness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth. 29 And as Esains said before, Exbaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say theu? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have say theu? righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the right-eousness which is of faith. 31 But Israel, which followed after the law of rightcousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness. 32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone; 33 as it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stum-blingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

X. Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. 2 For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. 3 For they being ignorant of God's right-cou-ness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. 4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

lyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. 20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another world the control of the control of the christ was not another man's foundation: 21 but as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand. 22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you. 23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you; 24 whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you : for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company. 25 But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints. 26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain con-tribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem. 27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gen-tiles have been made ritual things, their duty is also to minisealed to them this fruit, I will come by 9 oloa-oè ort you into Spain. 29 And And I know that I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ. 30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord τοῦ κυρίου ἡμῶν Ἰησοῦ χριστοῦ, καὶ διὰ τῆς ἀγάπης τοῦ brethren, to the Love of the our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in prayers for for γ γουν γουν το ασθαί μοι ἐν ταῖς προσευχαῖς ὑπὲρ together with me in prayers for for for me; 31 that I may εμοῦ πρὸς τὸν θεόν 31 ἵνα ρυσθῶ ἀπὸ τῶν ἀπει- be delivered from the decent some the strive together with me in the strive together with me in γουν ματος τον θεόν 31 ἵνα ρυσθῶν ἀπὸ τῶν ἀπει- be delivered from the strive together with the strive together with me in γουν ματος τον θεόν 31 ἵνα ρυσθῶν ἀπὸ τῶν ἀπει- be delivered from the strive together with me in γουν πρώς τον θεόν 31 ἵνα ρυσθῶν ἀπὸ τῶν ἀπει- be delivered from the strive together with me in γουν απει- be delivered from the strive together with me in γουν απει- be delivered from the strive together with me in γουν θείνενες τον ι μοῦ πρὸς τὸν θεόν. 31 ἴνα ρυσθῶ ἀπὸ τῶν ἀπει- be delivered from the to Cod, that I may be delivered from those being lieve in Judga; and θούντων ἐν τῷ Ἰονδαία, καὶ ταν τὰναι ἡ τοιακονία μου ἡ disobedient in Judæa; and that service my which [is]that my service which

But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that. 8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I. 9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. 10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband: Il but and if she depart, let her remain unmar-ried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife. 12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. 15 But if the unbelieving de-that both they that have wives be as though they had none; 30 and they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; 31 and they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away. 32 But passeth away. 32 but I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord: 33 but he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife. 34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. 35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. 36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry. 37 Ne-vertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so deoreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well. 38 So then he that giveth her in marriage dooth well; but he that giveth her

VIII. Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have know-ledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth. 2 And if any man think that he knoweth anything, fore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one, 5 For though there be that are called gods, whebeing, ther in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) 6 but to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. 7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto we eat, are we the bet-ter; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. 9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; If and through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? 12 But when ye sin so against the brethreu, and wound their weak con-cience, ye siu against Christ. 13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

you the same grace also. 7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and know-ledge, and in all dili-gence, and in your love to us, see that ye a-bound in this grace also. 8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sin-cerity of your love. 9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. 10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do. but also to be forward a year ago. 11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have. 12 For if there first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. 13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye be bur-dened: 14 but by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply-for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality: 15 as it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

PAUL, an apostle, (not of men, neither an apostle, by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;) 2 and all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: 3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: 5 to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: 7 which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. 8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. 9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. 10 For do I now persuademen, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith. preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. 9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abra-ham, 10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is writ-ten, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. 11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. 12 And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. 13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: 14 that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the pro-mise of the Spirit through faith.

III. This is a true saying, If a man desaying, if a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work. 2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, so-ber, of good behaviour, given to hospitality. apt to teach; 3 not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; 4 one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in sub-jection with all gravity; 5 (for if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) 6 not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. 7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lcst he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. 8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; 9 holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the of-fice of a deacon, be-ing found blameless. 11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slandcrers, sober, faithful in all things, 12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well pur-chase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Je-which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 16 And without controversy great is the mystery of god-liness: God was manifest in the flesh, jus-tified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

IV. Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; 2 speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with hot iron; 3 forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be re-fused, if it be received with thanksgiving : 5 for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer. 6 If thou put the brethren in re-membrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. 7 But refuse profane and old wives fables, and exercise thiself rather untogodliness. 8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. 9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all accepta-tion. 10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, be-

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents : for that is good and acceptable before God. 5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. 6 But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth. 7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless. 8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. 9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife having been the wife cf one man, 10 well reported of for good works; if she have brought up child-ren, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet. if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work. Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day; 4 greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy: 5 when I call to remembrance the un-feigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also. 6 Where-fore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. 7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. 8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the, gospel according to the power of God; 9 who hath saved us, and called us with an holy which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, 10 but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abo-lished death, and hath brought life immortality to light through the gospel: 11 whereunto I am der him. 9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. 10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings, 11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sancti-fied are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 saying, I will declare thy name anto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thre. 13 And again, I much then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; 15 and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham, 17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things per-taining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. 18 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

III. Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; 2 who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in βοηθήσαι.

ed the house hath more honour than the house. 4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God. 5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testi-Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice, 8 harden not your fathers tempted have not known my ways. 11 So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.) 12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. 13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. 14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our connot your hearts, as in the provocation. 16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke:

whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness? 18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that beheved not? 19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief. IV. Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest any of you should rest, any of you should scem to come short of it. 2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. 3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works. 5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest. 6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbe-lief: 7 again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts. 8 For if Jesus had given them rest then would he not afterward have spok-en of another day. 9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. 10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. 11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of un- also the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared; 8 though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suf-fered; 9 and being made perfect, he be-came the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him; 10 called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec. 11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be attered, seeing ye are dull of hearing. 12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk. and not of strong meat. 13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. 14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and

VI. Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, 2 of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. 3 And this will we do, if God permit. 4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, 5 and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, 6 if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance;

ther the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchise-

VII. For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him; 2 to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; 3 with-out father, without mother, without de-scent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually. 4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. 5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham: 6 but he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of A-braham, and blessed him that had the pro-mises. 7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better, 8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth. 9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him. 11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called

6 Now when these things were thus orlained, the priests went always into the first tubernacle, accomplishing the service of God. 7 But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people: 8 the Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing: 9 which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the con-science; 10 which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. 11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfeet tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; 12 neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. 13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sancti-fieth to the purifying of the flesh: 14 how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? 15 And for this cause he is the mediator of

X. For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect, 2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins. 3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year. 4 For it is not possible that the blood of buils and of goats should take away sins. 5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world. he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me: 6 in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure. 7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of mc,) to do thy will, O God. 8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law; 9 then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. his abundant merev hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrec-tion of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaveu for you, 5 who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: 7 that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: 8 whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet be-lieving, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: 9 re-ceiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.
10 Of which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who pro-phesied of the grace that should come unto you: 11 searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified be-forehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should fol-low. 12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels de-

7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. 8 Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. 9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. 10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into house, neither bid him God speed: 11 for he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the king-dom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. 10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book; and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, aud unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. 12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; 13 and in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to a garment down to the foot, and girt a-bout the paps with a golden girdle. 14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; 15 and his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. 16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. 17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. VIII. And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. 2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. 3 And ano-ther angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne, 4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand. 5 And the augel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and east it into the earth: and were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven an-gels which had the seven trumpets pre-pared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; 9 and the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. 16And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of hea-ven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; 18 that ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered to-gether to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. 20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles betore him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. 21Aud the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth : and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.
